ANNOUNCEMENTS: ENGLISHTriduum 2025 – An Answer to the Prayer of Jesus

“That they all may be one as you and I are one” (Jn 17:21) is an impassioned prayer of Jesus as he prepared to leave the world behind and return to his Father. The extended prayer is: “I pray that they will all be one, just as you and I are one—as you are in me, Father, and I am in you...” (Jn 17: 21).

Jesus’ prayer shows he loved his disciples very much. He yearned that his disciples would have the same unity that Jesus and the Father share. He prayed for this because unity is beautiful, sacred, and an integral part of God’s kingdom. In the past, his disciples had shown signs of discord—vying with each other for attention, arguing about who is the greatest, and even trying to compete to sit at Jesus’ right and left in the Kingdom. It was ugly. Jesus taught them many a lesson about servanthood, humility, and mutual love. Now Jesus prays that the disciples will put the past behind and that they would join in the very union he shared with his Father.

There was another reason for the prayer of Jesus. The whole prayer is: “I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me.” We see that Jesus’ complete prayer includes not only the disciples but those who believe in him because of their ministry. It includes the larger faith community.

But there is one more reason for Jesus’ prayer— “that the world may believe that you sent me.” The unity of the disciples has a missionary dimension. The world will believe that the Father sent Jesus because the disciples would bear witness to a larger united faith community. Without this unity, Jesus’ entire redemptive ministry would suffer a setback. In fact, disunity would create a counter witness.

As you know, the Bread of Life/Pan de Vida Family of Parishes will celebrate Triduum 2025 bilingually as one community. This is radical shift from the past. And I can understand the angst around it. Celebrating the Triduum with people whom we may not know, in a space unlike ours, and parts of it in a language we do not understand can all create nervousness and perhaps even resistance.

I am making an impassioned plea that we unite ourselves with Jesus’ prayer for his disciples and for the larger believing community. May our coming together to celebrate the Triduum as a multicultural, diverse, and inclusive community be an answer to Jesus’ prayer. May we be one as the Father and Jesus are one. May our coming together become a witness that the Father sent Jesus. May our coming together let others know that the disciples of Jesus can rise above their uniqueness, their differences, their individual identities for a greater vision—Jesus’ vision for a unified community of love. Especially in our very contentious world, such a witness is so deeply needed.

I personally invite you to make Triduum 2025 a witness to a unified celebration of our faith community. I invite you above all to rise above everything that can lead us away from Jesus’ prayer, “May they all be one....” Let us be united for the sake of the passion, suffering, and death of Jesus. I pray that by our witness to gospel love, unity, and peace, those around us may come to believe that Jesus was indeed sent by the Father and that we are one like Jesus and the Father are one.

Fr. Satish Joseph

Triduo 2025 - Una respuesta a la oración de Jesús

“Que todos sean uno, como tú y yo somos uno” (Juan 17,21) es una oración apasionada de Jesús cuando se preparaba para dejar el mundo y volver a su Padre. La oración extendida es: “Te ruego que todos sean uno, como tú y yo somos uno: tú en mí, Padre, y yo en ti...” (Juan 17, 21).

La oración de Jesús muestra que amaba mucho a sus discípulos. Anhelaba que sus discípulos tuvieran la misma unidad que comparten Jesús y el Padre. Rezaba por ello porque la unidad es hermosa, sagrada y parte integrante del Reino de Dios. En el pasado, sus discípulos habían dado muestras de discordia: rivalizaban entre sí por llamar la atención, discutían sobre quién era el más grande e incluso intentaban competir por sentarse a la derecha y a la izquierda de Jesús en el Reino. Era feo. Jesús les enseñó muchas lecciones sobre el servicio, la humildad y el amor mutuo. Ahora Jesús reza para que los discípulos dejen atrás el pasado y se unan a la misma unión que él compartía con su Padre.

Había otra razón para la oración de Jesús. La oración completa es: “No ruego sólo por ellos, sino también por los que creerán en mí por su palabra, para que todos sean uno, como tú, Padre, en mí y yo en ti, para que ellos también estén en nosotros, para que el mundo crea que tú me has enviado.” Vemos que la oración completa de Jesús incluye no sólo a los discípulos, sino también a los que creen en él a causa de su ministerio. Incluye a la comunidad de fe más amplia.

Pero hay una razón más para la oración de Jesús: “para que el mundo crea que tú me has enviado”. La unidad de los discípulos tiene una dimensión misionera. El mundo creerá que el Padre envió a Jesús porque los discípulos darán testimonio de una comunidad de fe unida más amplia. Sin esta unidad, todo el ministerio redentor de Jesús sufriría un revés. De hecho, la desunión crearía un testimonio contrario.

Como saben, la familia de parroquias Pan de Vida celebrará el Triduo 2025 de forma bilingüe, como una sola comunidad. Se trata de un cambio radical con respecto al pasado. Y puedo entender la angustia que genera. Celebrar el Triduo con personas a las que no conocemos, en un espacio distinto al nuestro, y parte de él en una lengua que no entendemos, puede crear nerviosismo e incluso resistencia.

Hago un llamamiento apasionado para que nos unamos a la oración de Jesús por sus discípulos y por la comunidad creyente en general. Que nuestra reunión para celebrar el Triduo como comunidad multicultural, diversa e inclusiva sea una respuesta a la oración de Jesús. Que seamos como el Padre y Jesús son uno. Que nuestra unión sea un testimonio de que el Padre envió a Jesús. Que nuestra unión haga saber a los demás que los discípulos de Jesús pueden superar su singularidad, sus diferencias, sus identidades individuales para alcanzar una visión más amplia: la visión de Jesús de una comunidad unida de amor. Especialmente en nuestro mundo tan contencioso, este testimonio es tan necesario.

Personalmente, les invito a hacer del Triduo 2025 un testimonio de celebración unitaria de nuestra comunidad de fe. Les invito sobre todo a elevaros por encima de todo lo que pueda alejarnos de la oración de Jesús: “Que todos sean uno...”. Estemos unidos por la pasión, el sufrimiento y la muerte de Jesús. Rezo para que, con nuestro testimonio de amor evangélico, unidad y paz, quienes nos rodean lleguen a creer que Jesús fue realmente enviado por el Padre y que somos uno como Jesús y el Padre son uno.
