While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

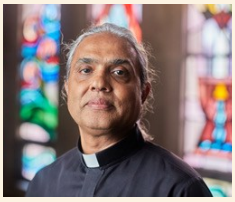
LETTER FROM FR. SATISH | CARTA DE PADRE SATISH

Hope for the Prince of Peace



Dear Parishioners,

As you read this letter, there is a brutal war raging in the very land where Jesus was born. We have been familiar with past Christmas celebrations in the Holy Land. The situation has always been volatile, but at least people were able to gather and pray. That will be hard to do accomplish this Christmas. I pray there is a Christmas truce, but even if there is, any celebration will be muted. At Jesus' birth the angels sang, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace…" (Lk 2:14). It is indeed tragic that peace eludes the very place the Prince of Peace was born.

Meanwhile, closer to home, Christmas lights are lit, Christmas trees are up, manger scenes are set, church choirs have been rehearsing, children eagerly await their gifts, churches will be full, and families will gather for Christmas festivities.

The eluding peace still troubles me, though. I am not sure about you, but it is easy for me to slide into discouragement, despair, and hopelessness. But then, I am also reminded that the world into which the Savior of the world was born was as distraught as it is today. In fact, a survey of the history of the world will tell us that there was no time that was better suited for Jesus' incarnation. And that precisely is the point. It is when the world is at its lowest ebb that our need of a Savior becomes even more urgent.

Every age has needed Jesus in a way that only that age can describe. This is our age. It is messy. It is chaotic. It seems unredeemable. But it is now when we need a Savior. It may not be the best of Christmases, but the Christmas lights, the Christmas trees, the gifts and the carols, the liturgy, and our family gathering remind us that our longing for the Savoir brought remains pronounced.

So, let the Christmas lights burn bright. Let the Christmas tree stand tall. Let the Christmas carols resound. On Christmas morn, let the children cheer at opening their gifts. Let our Christmas festivities continue. "For unto us is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord" (Lk 2:11). As we do, let there be a deeper longing for the Savior in our souls. More than at any other time in our lives, let us pine for the peace that only the Prince of Peace can bring.

On behalf of Fr. Len Wenke, Fr. Uriel Santos, and the staff of our Family of Parishes, I wish every one of you has a blessed, holy, and merry Christmas. May the New Year be filled with peace, good health, and well-being.

~Fr. Satish Joseph, Pastor, NE7 Family of Parishes

Esperanza en el Príncipe de la Paz

Estimados Feligreses,

Mientras usted lee esta carta, hay una guerra brutal que arrasa la misma tierra donde nació Jesús. Conocemos las celebraciones navideñas pasadas en Tierra Santa. La situación siempre ha sido volátil, pero al menos la gente podía reunirse y orar. Eso será difícil de lograr esta Navidad. Rezo para que haya una tregua navideña, pero incluso si la hubiera, cualquier celebración quedaría silenciada. En el nacimiento de Jesús los ángeles cantaron: "Gloria a Dios en las alturas, y paz en la tierra…" (Lc 2,14). De hecho, es trágico que la paz eluda el lugar mismo en el que nació el Príncipe de la Paz.

Mientras tanto, más cerca de casa, se encienden las luces navideñas, se colocan los árboles de Navidad, se preparan los pesebres, los coros de las iglesias han estado ensayando, los niños esperan ansiosamente sus regalos, las iglesias estarán llenas y las familias se reunirán para las festividades navideñas.

Sin embargo, la paz que se me escapa todavía me preocupa. No estoy seguro de usted, pero es fácil para mí caer en el desánimo, la desesperación y la desesperanza. Aunque también recuerdo que el mundo en el que nació el Salvador del mundo estaba tan angustiado como lo está hoy. De hecho, un estudio de la historia del mundo nos dirá que no hubo ningún momento más adecuado para la encarnación de Jesús. Y ese es precisamente el punto. Es cuando el mundo está en su punto más bajo cuando nuestra necesidad de un Salvador se vuelve aún más urgente.

Cada época ha necesitado a Jesús de una manera que sólo esa época puede describir. Esta es nuestra época. Es desordenada. Es caótica. Parece irredimible. Pero es ahora cuando necesitamos un Salvador. Puede que no sea la mejor de las Navidades, pero las luces navideñas, los árboles de Navidad, los regalos y los villancicos, la liturgia y nuestra reunión familiar nos recuerdan que nuestro anhelo por el Salvador sigue siendo pronunciado.

Entonces, deje que las luces navideñas brillen con fuerza. Deje que el árbol de Navidad se mantenga erguido. Que resuenen los villancicos. En la mañana de Navidad, deje que los niños se alegren al abrir sus regalos. Que continúen nuestras festividades navideñas. "Porque nos ha nacido hoy, en la ciudad de David, un Salvador, que es Cristo el Señor" (Lc 2,11). Al hacerlo, que haya en nuestra alma un anhelo más profundo por el Salvador. Más que en cualquier otro momento de nuestras vidas, añoremos la paz que sólo el Príncipe de Paz puede traer.

En nombre del P. Len Wenke, P. Uriel Santos y el personal de nuestra Familia de Parroquias, les deseo a cada uno de ustedes una bendita, santa y feliz Navidad. Que el Año Nuevo esté lleno de paz, buena salud y bienestar.
